Jesus Christ WANTED for Sedition

Sidney Hillman's Outfit WANTS Him

Mr. C. Leon de Aryan,
Dear Friend:—

Kindly give me the information regarding reason for your arrest (per Dr. Clements' article in HOW TO LIVE).

Also could you please spare a sample copy of your publication THE BROOM. If your publication is along the same lines as Dr. Clements' I'd be glad to subscribe to it.

Oblige, H. — — Washington, D. C.

WHY OUR EDITOR WAS JAILED

Dear Friend H.:—

I don't know whether one could say THE BROOM and HOW TO LIVE are along the same lines, since THE BROOM is not limited to health culture but takes in the whole field of human interest. I am rather inclined to feel that you will not dare take THE BROOM which is outspoken in everything where the rest of the press prefers to pussyfoot, be hypocrites or cowards.

Inquiries resulting from Dr. Clements' article are continuing to come in, even though it is several months since he published his article. Only two dared subscribe; while some Jewish people have decided to do him dirt.

I was arrested because I am a follower of the Christ and under the Roosevelt-Hillman line-up that is a crime, perhaps you don't believe it. Here are the facts:

Sidney Hillman, as head of the CIO faction which is robbing the workers and is collecting a slush-fund to put over the 4th term, is typical of the New Deal and explains better what FDR stands for than could be illustrated otherwise.

The so-called "Labor" leaders are competitors with Jesus Christ who has come into this world to lift up the downtrodden and dis-inherited, the ill-clad, ill-fed, ill-housed. There is a great difference between Hillman-Roosevelt-Rosenman and Jesus Christ and a remarkable one, too.

Jesus Christ stands for Principle as against Violence: Hillman - Roosevelt - Rosenman stand for violation of every principle by claiming the excuse of an "emergency". In his report to Augustus Caesar the procurator Pilate stated of Jesus:

"At first I was apprehensive that his design was to stir up the people against the Romans, but my fears were soon dispelled. Jesus of Nazareth spoke rather as a friend of the Romans, than of the Jews".

Why should Jesus have taken that attitude? Perhaps John 8: 44 explains it.

Modern and ancient professional "uplifters", like Hillman, Roosevelt and the other crocodile-tear shedders, always preach hatred, stir up class against class, nations against nations and while the common people fall for it the racketeers rob them blind, lead them to slaughter, literally, and deprive them of whatever liberties they had. The CIO is a perfect example of destroying the Constitution by creating emergencies, even Pearl Harbor.

The Christ principle on the other hand is scrupulously lawful. "Give God what is God's and Caesar's what is Caesar's."

The Christ tells us to abide by oaths, to respect lawful authority, to uphold therefore the Constitution.

Not so Hillman, Roosevelt, Rosenman. They set themselves up above God, law and the Constitution by creating emergencies. They promise paradise to the workers, provided they break the Constitution, break the Ten Commandments, break decency and honesty and Frankfurter even says they can hold up trucks on the highway and force the drivers to pay a ransom and THAT is the NEW DEAL, aside from a million other crimes.

According to the Christ-principle we are the children of Our Father and we must do justice to one another and learn to love each other as children of the ONE divine Family on Earth. But all Newdeal legistation is a legislation of privileges for organized "labor" against the rest of the nation.

Those who, like myself, follow the Christ and oppose abuse of power of the landed rich, as well as the landless mobs, find themselves between two fires. Jesus warned us and I, for one, don't complain: Matthew 10 and Luke 6:39.

Since they crucified the Master, after charging Him with sedition, what could I expect? I was arrested on July 22, 1942 upon orders of the President to Attorney General Biddle to have me indicted by a Federal Grand Jury in Washington, D. C. I was kept in jail for almost 6 months, was transported like a criminal to Los Angeles and Washington and finally released on $1,000 bail on the 13th of Jan. 1943. The real reason for my arrest is that I oppose labor racketeering and Jewish privileges against the rights of American citizens and the Constitution. I refuse to accept the Jewish doctrine that they are God's Chosen People to rule over US.

The CIO in California, the Newspaper Guild, the B'nai B'rith and the Communists, which in fact are one and the same outfit under different names, signed petitions and passed resolutions addressed the FDR to have me indicted for sedition. He did. Dave Freeman, then an employee in the Union-Tribune advertising department in San Diego, returning from the CIO convention of the Newspaper Guild in Colorado Springs in 1942, informed me that stooge Dillard Stokes, Washington Post reporter, had told him that I would be arrested within 60 days, and I was.

Now who is this crowd that insisted on my arrest?

The Hillman outfit, Jews, Communists, labor racketeers and newdealers, are the same outfit which operated in 1932 and published a monthly bulletin called ECONOMIC JUSTICE, 304 Crown Street, New Haven, Connecticut. The outfit called themselves "NATIONAL RELIGION AND LABOR FOUNDATION". They considered Jesus Christ their chief enemy and the eradication of his religion as the first matter of business on their program of agenda. That is natural, for HE is representing the exact opposite of their program.

They want strife by pitting class against class, race against race, nation against nation, that they may enslave all of them, while HE stands for FREEDOM of the individual as a divine child of Our Father who rules supreme and has so arranged the laws of life and nature that to prosper we must not violate them, to be happy, healthy, all of us at the same time.

The wise follows God, the fool follows FDR-Hillman-Rosenman.. No man can serve two masters.

Sidney Hillman was HONORARY PRESIDENT of the National Religion and Labor Foundation which published the following self-explanatory "REWARD" in Nov. 1932 issue, of its bulletin.

Mind you, this is the crowd who petitioned FDR to have me indicted and arrested for sedition. He did as they told him. Since they dictate the policy which he executes, instead of executing the laws of Congress and protect the Constitution, you know quite well, now, whether FDR serves the Christ or Beelzebub. And Jesus says in Matthew 8:26.

"Fear them not therefore: for there is nothing covered, that shall not be revealed: and hid, that shall not be known".

Remember Pearl Harbor?

Sincerely yours, C. LEON de ARYAN.

HILLMAN-ROOSEVELT-BROWDER ALLIANCE

WASHINGTON,— Democratic politians are not so sure that President Roosevelt made the best choice when he picked Robert E. Hannegan as national chairman for possibly the most difficult re-election battle the head man has ever faced.

"Bob" is a delightful person, and has probably performed as well as can be expected under the circumstances. But he has a fault which often proves fatal in politics: He talks too much in a boyish effervescent sort of way. He cannot resist the temptation to tell outsiders the key role he plays in large affairs.

F. D. R. tried to hide that he engineered the dumping of Henry A. Wallace at Chicago. But it was Hannegan who disclosed that he and Ed Kelly conferred with the president in the railroad yards during the convention, and there were informed that Roosevelt really wanted Sen. Truman. This revelation also showed that the commander-in-chief, while on a supposed war inspection trip took time out to play politics in the "usual partisan sense."

Again, it was Hannegan who confided that the President instructed him to "clear everything through Sidney," meaning C. I. O. Chieftain Hillman. That presidential remark has antagonized millions of non-unionists, A. F. L. and U. M. W. members and a large section of the American public which resents the alliance of the administration and this radical organization.

Reds Mobilize Behind Fourth Term

NEW YORK,—A national mobilization of their entire membership behind the fourth term campaign of President Roosevelt has been ordered by Communist Party potentates.

Thousands of Communist Political Action Clubs—new Trojan horse form of the Red organization—have been told to hold meetings in every state September 12 when detailed plans for the presidential campaign will be presented in a Union Square special communique.

These plans it was learned, are to include the all-out participation of every comrade, septugenarian and 'teen-ager alike, in the distribution of Red literature advocating Mr. Roosevelt's reelection.

Earl Browder, Communist chieftain, and his colleagues estimate that more than 100,000 comrades and sympathizers in left wing C. I. O. unions can be mustered for this propaganda campaign.

Browder and Company have also set aside the week of October 1-9 for their comrades to ring doorbells across the nation, appealing to citizens to register and vote for a fourth term.

This "registration week" on behalf of President Roosevelt—whom Browder called a "Fascist" in 1932, a "Progressive" in 1936 and a "Warmonger" in 1940—will be linked with similar drives of the C. I. O. and the American Labor Party, it was also learned.

Comrades will be given literature of the C. I. O.'s Political Action Committee to distribute in their doorbell ringing campaign, as well as left wing A. L. P. propaganda and even Democratic Party leaflets and pamphlets.

Although opposition to this Red support has been voiced by many Democrats and right-wing C. I. O. members, Browder has told his members, to "fight Red-baiting" and to convince skeptics that Communists are—for the time being—"Good Americans."

Smallpox or Jail-Rash ?

A number of Mexicans who crossed illegally into the U. S. A. were brought from Imperial county and lodged in San Diego's hotel presided over by our Sheriff Bert Strand, commonly known as County Jail. Some of these federal prisoners developed the usual skin-rash, common in filthy jails the world over. But a navy doctor happened to take a glance at the Mexicans, and since the navy is kept scrupulously clean, he could not, from his experience, think of anything else but small-pox in its incipient stage.

Dr. Alex Lessem, of the county health board, is used to filthy jail-products, evidently, for he diagnosed the case properly, even though jailers, U. S. marshals and jail-birds got scared out of their wits, if they had any, and were vaccinated in the superstition that by adding filth into their bloodstream, cow-pus miraculously would cleanse them of disease.

I had that skin-rash in Strand's hotel and it took two weeks of sun-baths in the tiny jail-library to cure it. The cause is filth, filthy blankets, mattresses, lack of exercise, no sunshine in the sun-less tanks overcrowded with prisoners. I was told by inmates that the reception tank at the city jail was even worse.

In order not to coddle prisoners our inhuman authorities torture them thru unsanitary crowding and lack of proper bedding. Evidently there is plenty of Mongolian and African blood left over in the mixture known as the American people, otherwise they would act like white folks in the treatment of prisoners. Japs in concentration camps are treated better than white folks in county jails.

The federal authorities have no business overcrowding county jails with federal prisoners. They squandered more than enough money paying for F. D. R.'s fourth term campaign junket to Hawaii, using the navy to catch a halibut and a flounder at $10,00,000 per fish, to build a proper and sanitary jail for the housing of its prisoners. Had F. D. R. been herded in the county jail while he was here he, too, would have caught that well-known jail-rash and the experience would have enlightened him profitably about the ill-housed, ill-fed and ill-clad in his realm, the forgotten men and women.

No Gambling in San Diego County or Cities

District Attorney Thomas Whelan is the most innocent native in office. He never knew there was gambling, and crooked gambling, in his realm till a sailor boy said so on the witness stand in court. Then our innocent D. A. started a correspondence school clean-up by writing nice letters to sheriff and the various police chiefs about it and all of them, being innocent children, crossed their hearts or made their cross for signatures on their letters, replying that such a thing as gambling is unheard of in their bailiwicks..

Now the rest of you need not laugh for the joke is on you. You gambled not only with money but with the lives of your children when you bet on F. D. R:

"Mothers and Fathers— again and again and again—"

PEARL HARBOR TERMED 'ISSUE'

Army-Navy Journal Says Truman Unfair to Kimmel and Short

WASHINGTON,—The Army and Navy Journal labeled the Pearl Harbor disaster "an issue in the presidential campaign" and called Democratic vice-presidential nominee Harry S. Truman's attack on Admiral Husband E. Kimmel and Major General Walter C. Short "unfair."

The Journal declared Truman's recent magazine article was unfair also to the Naval Court of Inquiry and an Army Board of Investigation, which is probing the causes of the catastrophe in line with a House resolution.

The service publication asserted that "unfortunately, Pearl Harbor has become an issue in the presidential campaign, the more so because Mr. Roosevelt is running for re-election as Commander-in-Chief as well as President, and in the former capacity could be charged with responsibility for the disaster."

Truman's reiteration of Supreme Court Justice Owen J. Roberts' report would "intensify public opinion" against the two officers "in advance of military verdicts," the publication said.

'RIGHT TO WORK' PROPOSAL INDORSED

Overwhelming indorsement of the so-called "right to work" constitutional amendment to be voted on in November was voted by the Marine Corps League, California department, at its convention in Sacramento, the California Committee for the Right to Work announced.

"We must preserve for the men who will win this victory freedom of opportunity to obtain a job of their own choosing," the league resolution said, in part.

THE TRUTH IN PUBLIC LIFE

A 'NEWS'-PAPER PRESENTS NEWS

A most momentous campaign is being waged for the control of the people of the planet and of the American people in particular. The same cruel, ruthless, treacherous, murderous gang is waging this campaign in all the countries on the planet.

In the U. S. A., now, we have to decide wether we will stand for a fourth term or return to the purpose of the Founding Fathers, of Washington and Jefferson, and the pioneers who produced this Republic.

There are two contending parties, and their candidates, facing each other. Both parties, in fact all political parties and churches, are corrupted and controlled by the faction which is inflicting world-imperialism under the guise of Four Freedoms upon humanity.

In the usual course of political campaigning partisans depict their candidate as a Savior and the opponent as the devil incarnate, regardless of the truth. Since the Broom is openly working to sweep out of office the atheistic, communistic Hillman-Roosevelt-Browder-Frankfurter administration, many unthinking people expect us to beat the drum for Gov. Dewey regardless of the truth. This would constitute partisanship against the truth and lead to greater disaster.

Above all things, The Broom is a news paper. Our readers expect us to tell the truth. Knowing the facts, as they really are, the people will, then, decide what to do. As a newspaper it is not our business to dictate to you what to think. We shall not decide to keep you in ignorance to fool you into voting against F. D. R., by making believe that he alone is the Devil and Dewey is an angel.

F. D. R. is an instrument in the hands of God to demonstrate that faithlessness, disregard of oaths of office, resort to smartness and the creation of emergencies, does not produce freedom and prosperity.

This nation needed the lesson. F. D. R. was the proper characterless character to play the part of such leadership. He is a product of the times. If the people were inspired and guided by Love of Truth present conditions could not exist here and abroad.

Now you and I must decide whether we want more of these bloody treacherous experiences of violence that violates every tenet of God and morality.

Gov. Dewey and Gov. Warren are no better than F. D. R.. All three are unscrupulous politicians and opportunists. Truth and the Constitution means nothing to either. Their boundless ambition is their God and guide.

We must elect Dewey to make a change.. We must elect an American, not an International, Congress and make it plain to them that we stand upon the principles of the Founding Fathers, not upon the lack of principles of Browder, Hillman, Rosenman, Frankfurter and F. D. R.

For this reason THE BROOM will continue to present the facts and the truth, hew to this line and let the chips fall where they may.

Mug-Wump Warren Pulls His Punches

LOS ANGELES,—Gov. Earl Warren disclosed he had rejected a speech suggested to him by Republican national headquarters which strongly denounced Sidney Hillman and the C. I. O. Political Action committee for promotioning a fourth term for President Roosevelt.

"The New York headquarters sent a draft of a suggested speech to me and it arrived the day before at the capitol in Sacramento," Gov. Warren said, referring to a talk he made with two other Republican governors over a national radio network on behalf of Thomas E. Dewey, G. O. P. presidential candidate.

Worked Talk Over

"I worked it over and made such changes as to me seemed desirable and then it was given to newspapermen. The first speech that came from New York was merely a tentative draft submitted as a suggestion to me."

The original speech draft proposed for Warren by the G. O. P. national committee critized President Roosevelt for his asserted refusal to "repudiate the Earl Browder-Sidney-Hillman-Communist-allied Political Action committee, the last hope of the fourth term's lost cause."

"I wonder if it was for educational and not political reasons that Mr. Roosevelt, passing through Chicago, is reported to have said to the chairman of the Democratic national committee: 'Clear everything with Sidney.' " the original draft said.

References Cut Out

The draft also alleged that Hillman was in Chicago only for the purpose of promoting a fourth term and added, "to you and me, that is politics, and even the attorney general of the United States cannot whitewash it to look like anything else".

Warren's final speech eliminated these references. His rewritten version was:

"The Republican party does not propose to buy this election. We insist, though, that Mr. Sidney Hillman and his committees shall not be permitted to do it either. We know that they do have in mind lavish and uncontrolled campaign expenditures in behalf of new deal candidates and that their real purposees have not been fully disclosed."

ENEMIES WHOM WE WELCOME

We are glad to report that Sidney Hillman cut loose against THE TRIBUNE the other day in Boston. Sidney wasn't in the best vituperative vein, but he can be expected to improve when he and his speech writers get down into their bag of Communist epithets. We have been telling how Hillman and his PAC are trying to put into practice in this country Hitler's methods of regimenting the CIO vote and having it vote "Ja" on orders from the party elite, so Sidney probably will get around in time to the angle of the local house organ for the power trust and holler that we are "playing Hitler's game."

The Tribune has its share of critics whom we respect and with whom we disagree. It also has a wide circle of vicious enemies whose attacks we welcome because, in addition to its own reputation, this newspaper is vouched for by these attacks made on it by the enemies of America and Americans.

We are libeled and slandered from time to time by cockroach commentators and the vermin press. We enjoy the hatred of Hatchetman Ickes, the gents' room patriot Winchell, Prevaricating Pearson, and little Cecil Brown, who is trying to prove that he can smell as bad as the big boys. Our abusers include the Adler newspaper chain, whose formula for journalistic success is an editor on each side of the street and a business office in the middle; Mr. Field, who has amalgamated expatriate dollars with British snobbery and Communist theology; and others too disreputable to mention.

Since THE TRIBUNE isn't a candidate for any thing it should be obvious to our readers as it is ourselves why we are subjected to these attacks. The attackers hope to distract our attention from the patriotic task of ridding this nation of the fatal, un-American curse of Roosevelt's New Deal. They realize the futility of defending the defendant and so have adopted the old dodge of prosecuting the prosecutor. We do not intend to be distracted. We will keep driving toward our objective, but will advise our readers from time to time of any additions to the pack that yaps at our carriage wheels.

Hillman Denies Being Communist Fellow Traveler

WASHINGTON,—Chairman Sidney Hillman of the C. I. O. Political Action Committee challenged the Dies Committee on un-American activies to bring him before it for questioning.

The fiery leader errupted into an angry outburst as he testified before the House Campaign Expenditures Committee on the financial structure of his P. A. C., which is under fire in Congress.

Representative Ralph E. Church (Republican), Illinois, charged that the P. A. C. methods of getting funds from C. I. O. members were "Communistic" and a "racket".

$100,000 GIFT CITED

Church made his charge of Communistic methods during the interrogation of Hillman on the manner in which the Amalgamated Clothing Workers of America, a C. I. O. union of which Hillman is president, had made a $100,000 contribution last year to the P. A. C. Hillman explained that the Alagamated Executive Board voted the money under union authorization to proceed to act between union conventions and that the membership approved the contribution at its convention later.

Church protested that individual members of the union had no voice in the original decision to give the $100,000 to P. A. C.

"It's perfectly possible under this plan of working from the top down, in the Communistic method, to add up hundreds of dollars to defeat a single Congressman," Church charged.

Hillman, wagging an angry finger at Church, warned that America "must keep the cry of Communism out of the forthcomming presidential campaign."

"You are trying to prejudice the public mind against us and against labor, Mr. Congressman," Hillman shouted.

"You are hitting below the belt, I have fought Communism all my life."

NINE C. I. O. MEMBERS QUIT IN POTEST on HILLMAN POLICY

WOONSOCKET, R. I.—The rebellion within C. I. O. ranks against the alleged dictator tactics of Sidney Hillman's Political Action committee mounted with the blanket resignation of nine members of the Industrial Trades union.

The I. T. U. is affiliated with the United Labor P. A. C., Rhode Island's counterpart of the C. I. O.-P. A. C.

The latest flareup of open revolt follows the session last week of two Salt Lake City unions, when they severed association with the Hillman group, denouncing it as incompatible with "the freedom of speech and constitutional rights our goys are fighting for."

Announcement of the I. T. U. resignations was signed by 21 members of the committee who "after careful deliberation" asserted that the Hillman "order" to vote the state Democratic ticket or resign was contrary to "the rights of free men."

"As free men we wish to have our rights to vote for whom we please," the announcement stated, continuing:

"We know the workers are intelligent enough to know how to vote without being told. The Political Action committee is creating a division between men who are free to vote as they please and the labor movement.

"The labor unions will be the losers because we feel they will make too many enemies. We have many Republicans in our organization and we believe that it would not be fair to force them to endorse Rosevelt."

THE EMPTY CHAIRS AT PEARL HARBOR

President Roosevelt has completed another of his secret but highly publicized war conferences outside the continental United States, this time at Pearl Harbor. A lot of the sensationalism and heavy drama of Quebec, Cairo, Teheran, Casablanca, and the Atlantic high seas meetings was missing from this conference. Mr. Roosevelt's cronies of previous outings, Prime Minister Churchill and Premier Stalin, stayed home. It is altogether fitting that Mr. Roosevelt should show up eventually at Pearl Harbor, for the infamous Pearl Harbor incident is his responsibility. Apparently Mr. Churchill and Comrade Stalin were willing to allow him the whole stage there. —Chicago Tribune

PLANE TALK

BY Rowland Burnstan

The war has made great and urgent demands upon aeronautical science and industry for the development of flawless aircraft and their components. Under the emergency, the aeronautical world has complied, and the astounding developments in warplanes, only partially known today, will not be entirely (for reasons of security) disclosed until after victory has been won.

Not all aeronautical development during the war has been limited to destruction and death-dealing devices. A great many of the developments have been for safety and accuracy in flight and will be applicable to peacetime aviation.

Radar, in contrast with its destruction-dealing wartime role, will serve peacetime aviation as a detection device for obstructions encountered in flight during poor flying conditions.

The automatic pilot, which has as one of its wartime jobs the responsibility of keeping the aeroplane on an even keel during bombing operations, will be used to afford a respite from routine piloting to peacetime aviators during monotonous flights.

These and other electronic products, whether wholly or partially used in peacetime aviation, will tend to repay in a small way the unestimable destruction they helped cause during the war.

POST-GRADUATES IN CRIME

President Roosevelt has comstupid to us. If God be God, He knows what is right, and is doing it. If He can be changed by importuning, He isn't much of an All-God, especially when by asking He kills off a lot of His other children on the "other side". The Universe is governed by UNchangeable Law, and that is the only God there is, and to that you conform or suffer the consequences.

Instead of such praying, we might better be turning our attention to the weakness brought about by our own breaking of the Laws of Life. It has been revealed that of the total of 3,836,000 men rejected for military service, about 1,340,000 were mental cases. This is an appalling record, to which is added the sum of 250 million dollars worth a year of vitamins which people are now taking to maintain even this poor health and mental rate.

Something of the tremendous cost of the war's destruction of Life begins to trickle into the press. The Chief of FBI in New York City recently pointed out the potential crime of the returning 10,000,000 soldiers who have been trained by commando methods to kill "skillfully and noiselessly, post-graduates in crime."

P. A. C. LETTER SENT to U. S. CLERGYMEN

NEW YORK,—A second letter to Christian and Jewish clergymen on behalf of President Roosevelt's re-election has been mailed by the National Citizens Political Action committee.

It was not signed by Sidney Hillman, as the first letter, which brought a storm of protest from Republican leaders, nor did it mention the president's name. The letter, written by the Rev. Dwight J. Bradley, said in part:

"You may not wish to meddle in politics or to be identified officially with any party or faction, but you know that the issues that we face now must be grappled with by government as well as by individuals and private organizations."

Looking Ahead

Making Work

By GEORGE S. BENSON
President of Harding College
Searcy, Arkansas

IT IS FOR the good of the country and every family in it that plenty of well-paid employment be provided after the war. It is not a mere matter of justice to the deserving; not at all a matter of pity for the unfortunate. It is patriotism; it is self-preservation. If America is to remain the land of liberty and opportunity, our first post-war step must be toward work for willing workers.

The first move in post-war prosperity therefore is industry's move, putting some seven to ten million men to work at gainful employment. It is no small matter. The average investment necessary to make a job in American industry is $6,000 which means that industry must put up 40 to 60 billion dollars for plant equipment and working capital to make all these jobs good; make them pay wages and interest on investment.

Adjustments Necessary

SOON after V-Day some 16 million men will start making their personal adjustments from war to a peace-time manner of life. About six million of them will get out of industry after the war; young people returning to school, married women resuming their homemaking, etc. But some will want to keep working.

The United States likely will keep a larger Army and a more powerful Navy than ever before. Probably anybody who wants to remain in the armed forces will have a chance to stay, but millions of fighting men will want civilian jobs right after the war. These two groups combined make seven to ten million workers and there is not much disagreement among statisticians about the figure.

Planning Required

PUTTING all these men to work, of course, is only one side of industry's big post-war responsibility. The other half of it is providing people the things they need at prices they can afford to pay. Both undertakings require some high-powered planning. Popular retail prices have to start with low production costs which depend on volume, but overproduction is a calamity in any plant, a big calamity in any industry.

This sketchy outline should show what a stupendous job of master precision American industry must accomplish, or else. It is staggering but it is possible. It will require accurate market forecasting, balanced production, economical operation and good selling.

If Private Enterprise does its share for national prosperity by investing 40 to 60 billion dollars to create seven to ten million jobs, industry will be obliged to have security of investment and hope of profit—a green light and a clear road. Labor and government both have a necessary part to play in post-war prosperity, and the next two chapters of this column will deal with them, one at a time. "Labor's Lever," next week.

Good WORD — Good DEED

Anti-Subversive vs. Anti-Semitic

Now that even Governor Dewy has entered the anti-Antisemitic campaign and made a fool of himself attacking Congressman Fish for stating the truth and the facts, it becomes timely to clarify terms as well as the situation.

Anti-Semites are people who are out to kill, persecute, rob and deprive Jews of their rights to Life, Liberty and the Pursuit of Happiness for no other reason than that of being Jews. How anti-Semites got that way is another question. They cite the history and the records of Jews. Granted all that, nevertheless, we as Americans, as Aryans, as Christians, our business here on earth is to be redeemers and reclaim the earth and turn it into a paradise.

The Aryan is characterized by his nobility of soul and motives as well as means of accomplishment. His intelligence does not admit of violation of principle to achieve his ends. That proves him an Aryan. His prototype are the Zoroastrians, Greek corruption of the Iranian term Zar-Adusht, meaning Prince of Peace. Thus Jesus Christ typifies the Aryan. And Christ stands for Infinite Love and Wisdom that does not resort to treachery, falsehood, double-deal, violation of divine commandments, using "emergency" as an excuse for holding that the end justifies the means, as the Newdealers and murderers everywhere proclaim.

Because of such bold stand on the part of the Aryan Christ, Jesus WAS PUT TO THE TEST and survived the ordeal on the Cross without a blemish: an example which we Aryans must follow. Love conquers and God being infinite is more powerful than all of Churchill, Roosevelt, Stalin, etc., put together, with Sidney Hillman thrown in for good measure.

Now to be anti-Semitic is to be against Christ because revenge is un-Christian. But that does not mean that one is to be blind to truth and facts. As redeemers we must stand by the truth and proclaim it at the peril of our lives, as Jesus did. Violence comes from our adversaries, we don't indulge in it. Thus it must be quite clearly understood that stating the truth it not anti-Semitism and those who cannot stand the rays of truth must take the consequences.

To understand who is an Aryan remember the words "I have not come to break the Law and the Commandments but to fulfill them". Then compare this with the record of FDR who took an oath to uphold the Constitution.

The nature of the Aryan is nobility. This makes it very clear that Himmler's methods are not Aryan but Mosaic. The Aryan proclaims amnesty, forgiveness, is happy for the return of one lost sheep to the fold and rejoices over it more than over the righteousness of the other 99. But forgiveness presupposes asking for it, by realization of wrong doing and decision to obey the Will of Father henceforth. Then the prodigal is forgiven. Compare NUMBERS 31: 17, 18, which Moses ordered and Himmler followed to the letter in Poland.

Therefore, we as Aryans, as Christians, as Americans, we must always hold the door open for forgiveness to those who have a change of heart and realization of God's supremacy. Peace cannot come into the world by violence. As long as Nazis, Jews and Internationalists follow the path of tooth for tooth and suppression of the Right to Life, Liberty and the Pursuit of Happiness, nothing but reprisals can come, for the world is yet far from being Christians. It is we, as the highest advanced nation on the globe, who must set the example to the others. But first we must individually be convinced that the Christ-way is the only practical way to respect of our neighbor's rights. That alone insures justice and peace through good will. It is evident that this redemption is an individual process because we have free ill and choice.

As a social method of the Golden Rule in government, the Henry George system of economics is unsurpassed as, for example, presented by L. D. Beckwith and others of his school. Charles H. Ingersoll has been writing about it in THE BROOM for years. We must not fear proclaiming the truth. Today many will vote for Norman Thomas, the socialist candidate for president, not because all of them believe in socialism, but because of all candidates, he personally is the cleanest and most honest one. Nevertheless, the system he represents is fallacious and un-American. It leads to dictatorship.

Those of us who have perfect faith in the Christ, who follow His dictates, need not worry about politics. No matter who comes on top, the nation will learn the hard way because it prefers to follow the false gods of "emergency" in place of Christ.

Those who choose the Christ-path of Life must prepare for persecution. We, as individuals, must grow to be stronger and mightier in mind, spirit and body than the prevaricators. We must not fear them and yield. That is the test. As long as we are slaves to fear we don't love God with all our being but are creatures of "animal magnetism".

The process of testing each individual is inescapable, for the Kingdom of God on earth, the paradise we are to build here in conformity with divine plans, is impossible as long as the beast prevails over nobility. Only those tested and proven adamant can qualify to produce the heaven on earth.

The process is a slow process Mankind has taken millions of years since it appeared on the planet, but the process is a conscious process. You and I have been striving for it. Every step we take toward its realization brings a thrill of happiness to our hearts. Happiness comes from fulfilment of God's plan. Thus you have a very safe guide right in your own heart. And the highest happiness comes when your love is great enough and your wisdom broad enough, to forgive your enemies and do good to those who persecute you, for as you emerge from the test you are purified, your soul is as clean as a flawless diamond and you are as adamant to corruption as is the pure gold flowing from the furnace-cauldron.

Hats Off to Mrs. Kent

"PRONE" is the English word For "KARMA"

By Lillian Scott Troy

(Conclusion)

THE INEXORABLE ROD OF GOD

Now, just what is the meaning of 'prone to error'? It is older than Aristotle's teachings to the conqueror of the then-known world, Alexander. It is a basic principle in nature. No system of eugenics has been able to eradicate it from animals—or humans—once the virus has been implanted in a strain. For instance, the horse which stumbles frequently is the direct descendant of a line of stumblers: He is prone to that affliction.

Now madness is a known and recognized form of insanity, but the history of alienism shows that all who suffer from this type of mental derangement are prone to it through some atavistic fear, weighed upon their natures by their forebears.

What has all this to do with the case of scullions and scavengers and young Kent and his mother?

In the first instance, men from the historical depths of scullions and scavengers yearned for release from their inherited sense of degradation— a prone sense from which they were unable to escape—as the rabbit in a cage longs for freedom. Along comes the cunning tempters of an alien government with the brains to make good use of these inferior out-stamps of the civilized genera—and, as with the two varlets of bad smell, they are "rewarded" for their services, but secretly regarded as too low in the human scale to be classed as anything higher than scullions and scavengers. They lick the boots of the tempters, longing for that title, whether it be the "GRAND ORDER OF SCULLIONS & SCAVENGERS," or something more delicate to the taste, such as "Knights of the Bath".

A war is on the upgrade. Only one man, regarded as a superb bungler himself, but the 'only man who can handle' another man, is selected to guide his nation behind the power, wealth and might of the others man's nation, in the greatest fight in history.

A young American who has not learned to lick boots, scents, or thinks he scents, something wrong. What power has he against such a combination? Nothing but their proneness to error!

THE WIDOW'S MITE

Another starts to fight for her boy. Laugh—only a woman! Bah!

MURDER WILL OUT

Malicious propaganda has always done the trick, so the American boy comes in for his share of a most vicious attack. Everyone is against him—but his mother. They say he got what he deserved—and the world nodds a "yes". Then, true to glorious nature, along comes old man Prone. The fellow implants one blunder after another, and soon we find "themselves" tripping over them in true prone fashion. Trying to hush-hush matters arouses suspicion. Then the mysterious death of young John Bryan Owen comes along and adds gasoline to these suspicions. In the background lurks the deadly fear of what Pearl Harbor may disclose. Next advances to the support of the mother, Jock MacGovern the bold and honest member of Parliament from old Scotland— who is as safe as the sun in the heavens, as all Scotland would get started if anything happened to their Jock. Further, investigation proves that Captain Ramsey bore an excellent reputation all his life—and still bears it in spite of being in one of Churchill's prisons. Now all of this need not have happened if two of the principal actors in the tragedy had not been born of lines prone to error. It is a nice theorem in the adamantability of nature's laws—they never change, or fail.

Had the two of them been wiser than to have used the secret code of the United States, as Kent says they did, they might have passed on to glory without this bit of crepe hanging over their places in "history". Proneness to error, or to accident, or to anything malific to which flesh is heir, is based more in the physical strain of heredity than in the mental or moral—but it affects the latter to an stonishing degree.

THE TYRANT'S NEMESIS

Fifty years ago Marion Crawford wrote that 'Criticism is only called sedition under despotic governments'. The despot suffers from that wild atavistic yearning for power and freedom of his own consciousness from the subjective sense of degradation and worthlessness. There is in such natures an incontrollable urge to strike out at something—anything—the weaker the object the better suited to the coating of cowardice in the nature of the despotic character. But, why should we complain? It is true nature is at its best or worst, as the case may be, for the dog to bark, the bird to sing, and the fish to swim—as it is a pure and true nature culture for the saddist to intrigue and strike out at the good and the weak. Stop the dog's bark and he will die; tie a fish that it may not swim, or, stop the rabbit in its proneness for running—and both will die. Interfere with the man who lives and thrives on intrigue and saddism, and the everlasting struggle to attract the obedience of others—who are his superiors mentally and morally—and that man will succumb quickly.

Nature provides food for all alike—the vultures which eat only decaying meat, and the cows who will fade without their hay.

So, while fighting to protect young Mr. Tyler Kent, and assisting a loving mother to clear her son whom she believes innocent, we should ever take heart in the immutable and adamant law of nature—that proneness to error, to bungling and to final destruction, is a law of nature which possesses great possibilities in every case of this type. Put the bunglers on a greased toboggan, and they will slide off sideways into the ditch—because of their atavistic proneness to error.

Watch 'em slide!

TEACHER RESCUED IN ATTACK ATTEMPT

A 25-year-old school teacher early Monday morning was saved from an attempted attack by a sailor in the park behind the customs building at Union and F streets, when Fred Gutridge saw her struggling with the sailor and came to her aid. The would-be attacker fled before officers could capture him.

The woman said she was on the way to see her husband at Consolidated Vultee Aircraft Co., when the sailor grabbed her and forced her into the park.

Meanwhile, a 22-year-old Negress reported to the police that she had been robbed and criminally attacked by four Negro sailors soon after midnight Sunday while walking on Eighth ave. between J and K streets, in the down town section.

City Manager Walter Cooper is still keeping policemen on patrol duty to collect nickels from parking meters while these men should be on night duty protecting women from uniformed rapists.

Some people get the idea they are worth a lot of money just because they have it.

EMBARRASSING QUESTIONS ABOUT PEARL HARBOR

Mr. Hull received word of the Pearl Harbor bombing while at his Sunday afternoon conference with Ambassador Nomura and Special Envoy Kurusu. His purplish and unprintable profane outburst evinced his utter surprise and bewilderment. His explosive reaction was not that of a man conditioned to such a sneak blow.

Then, it is still obscure as to why, after the Japs had been handed the admitted "war note" Nov. 26, and Washington ordered Kimmel and Short to go "on alert," they should have notified their superiors that they had merely installed minor precautions against internal sabotage, and none against external assault. And there is the related query: Why did not the White House, state, war and navy department rush an immediate and urgent warning to prepare for an invasion?

Again, if higher up diplomats and strategists were aware of realities, why did they not insist that the Pacific fleet be sent to sea instead of keeping the ships in the harbor in such close formation as to make them an ideal target for enemy bombers? And why were the planes grounded wing to wing in a way that they could be smashed to smithereens? Why were anti-air-craft listening devices not operating?

These are embarrassing questions which the American people had almost forgotten—and perhaps there is no valid reason for asking them now. But the blame rests with the man from Missouri not the Deweyites. —Ray Tucker.

NAVY DISASTER LAID to F. D. R.

MONTPELIER, VT.,—Clarence Buddington Kelland, author and Republican national Committeeman from Arizona, told the G.. O. P. state committee that "President Roosevelt cannot avoid the responsibility for the Pearl Harbor naval disaster."

He declared that it lengthened the Japanese war "possibly by years."

Kelland said the adminstration neglected to take "elemental precautions" and thereby subjected "the American people to disgrace, if not to the most tragic naval disaster in history."

He asserted that the administration had appeased the Japs by allowing oil and scrap iron to go to Japan for the war against China and eventually against the United States. He spoke of the "neglect" to garrison the Philippines and Alaska for defense. This laxity, he said, permitted an invasion threat to the Philippines and allowed sinking of American shipping on the east coast.

Kelland said he was "more than disappointed" with Roosevelt's recent Bremerton, Wash., address as it "tossed the war into the arena of partisan politics."

SMITH FLAYS POLITICAL 'SHAM'

DETROIT,—Gerald L. K. Smith, America First party presidential nominee, told the party's first national convention in its closing session that the coming election would be a "sham battle" between Democrats and Republicans.

Smith charged that the Republican standard-bearer, New York's Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, was "controlled by them same interests that have controlled the president for the past 12 years" and said that Dewey's election would mean only a "more aggressive and more youthful campaign of hate."

Dewey, Smith asserted, is definitely "committed to alliance with Great Britain."

The convention nominated Smith by unanimous vote on its first ballot and chose Harry Romer, of St. Henry, O., merchant, as his running mate. Both had previously been chosen by a Michigan state convention, which substituted Romer after John W. Bricker, the Republican nominee, had refused the America First party's vice presidential nomination.

DESERTION of F. D. R. BY LABOR ASKED

WASHINGTON,—John L. Lewis' United Mine Workers Journal appealed to organized labor to desert the Roosevelt ticket this fall, asserting that continued "labor obedience to the ex-new dealers" will bring "the same kind of labor movement as they have in Russia."

"The American free labor movement is meeting the same fate as the Atlantic Charter, the Four Freedoms, and all the other grandiose promises and assurances made by the new deal administration," the Jouranl said.

"If the trend of labor obedience to the ex-new dealers and their servile politicians continues on, we will wind up with the same kind of labor movement as they have in Russia."

Robert Noble Tells His Experiences

When the Sacramento "assassination" was over Mr. Jones and I were again hauled to Los Angeles and kept in the County jail from October, 1942, until Febuary of the next year, when in company with Mr. Ferenz and four Deputy U. S. Marshals, we were dragged clear across the United States to Washington, D. C. At night we slept shackled to Mr. Ferenz, and all during the day heavy leg irons were kept around our ankles. The writ of arrest covering our removal across the country was a Presidential one marked "forthwith" but dated in the previous November, about three months before the return of the indictment we were being taken to answer to.

After our arrival here we spent three months intermittently going to court, all the while having a difficult time to get attorneys to represent us. One Mr. Jones had for a few days got up in court and called us all "crack-pots and screw-balls". Jones fired him pronto.

After a while we got hold of a lawyer who agreed to look into our legal situation—Mr. Latimer who has been doing such fine work for Mr. Deatherage and Mr. True in this fantastic trial. Mr. Latimer wrote some letters to California in an attempt to find out just what we had been thru with the idea in mind of attempting our release via Habeas Corpus Writs since our convictions were plainly illegal ones.

When copies of Mr. Latimer's letters reached us in jail several days after they had been mailed—in the interim the Dept. of Justice perused them—Mr. Jones and I were kidnapped early one morning without notice, and taken handcuffed and shackled across the District of Columbia, across the state of Maryland and into Pennsylvania to the Lewisburg Federal Penitentiary, all the while without a warrant, Habeas Corpus Writs, or legal papers of any kind, and we were lodged at the penitentiary without any commitment papers. There we were held incommunicado for a number of weeks. Mr. Latimer could not locate us, and we were not permitted to communicate with him.

During this time I wrote letters to my sister, brother, son and daughter, as the printed regulations said I had a right to do. After several weeks all of these letters were returned to me, at one time together, with the instructions that I would not be allowed to write to any one. During this time my daughter, married shortly after my arrest, had a baby. She wrote me a letter telling her papa of this great event in her life. It was returned to her with the information that she was not allowed to write me.

At Lewisburg everything was taken away from us, except our glasses. We asked to keep our legal papers but were not allowed to. We were told that all our clothes would be sent to our homes (at our expense) but after several weeks when we were at last permitted to write one letter a week to one person (one sheet only) and to receive one letter a week from this same person—we found that our clothes and personal possesions had not reached our homes. So for several months we were greatly worried about our legal papers. Without them we were practically unable to make a move even after we had again contacted counsel.

No one knew where our papers or clothes were. The Warden, Associate Warden, Parole officers, etc. apparently couldn't help us. You can imagine the run around they gave us month after month. Finally I learned via the so-called "grapevine" from another inmate that our clothes were still there. Now remember we had been arrested more than a year before we got to Lewisburg and in fact had been sentenced to the penitentiary nine months before. Incindently we had all this time been requesting that that sentence be carried out.. We wanted to be placed in a penitentiary where we would get some decent food, medical attention, and outdoor recreation, instead of slow death in these fearful jails.

After I knew the papers were actually there I protested to the Warden that I could not answer intelligently a letter I had received from an attorney without seeing my legal papers, and I made such a fuss about it that, four months after we arrived at the penitentiary, I was permitted to see my things. Papers all mussed up, apparently gone over with a fine-toothed comb, and the clothes stuffed in a couple of bags. The officer said one suit had been pressed and was to be kept ready for my departure—same for Mr. Jones. Most of the inmates would not believe that our things were still there, or even most of the officers for that matter, because they said when one was committed to the institution all personal effects were sent home or destroyed.

This was in August. One officer said someone must be uncertain about something or we would not be handled in such an irregular manner. The following January 29th, we were brought here for this present indictment.

This is something of the story I told Mr. Laughlin and he kindly reported back to Senator Langer. Mr. Laughlin was kind enough to say that I was a man of refinement and education and had certainly told him a tale of the harrowing experiences that we had been thru.

It was arranged that Mr. Laughlin would represent me in this trial. And he started off with a bang by filing a motion to subponea Admiral Kimmel and General Short, since we were accused of making certain remarks about Pearl Harbor, suggesting that Roosevelt was really to blame for it.. He followed this by a motion to attach and bring into court the records of the Anti-Defamation League, of the B'nai B'rith, because they are the folkks back of this indictment. Would you like some proof as to their interests? See "The B'nai B'rith Messenger" of May 12, 1944, page six "Goebbel's Column—Noble, the Silver Tongued Demagogue", being a maliciously distorted account of our Los Angeles meetings.

Mr. Laughlin wrote a masterful letter to the President pointing out that this trial would only stir up enmity against the Jews and that it should be stopped at once.

Before the trial started I had been trying to get Mr. Laughlin to file an affidavit of bias and prejudice against the judge because of the way he insultingly handled us and because of certain information which had come to me about a deal between him and President Roosevelt about this trial—all of which has been handled very thoroughly by THE BROOM. When Mr. Laughlin saw how the judge was acting as the trial started, his dictatorial and insulting manner not only toward the defendants but all the defense counsel, he did file the affidavit of bias and prejudice, whereupon he was immediately cited to stand trial before Justice Bailey of the District Court, to show cause why he should not be held in contempt. Mr. Laughlin immediately filed motions to subpoena Mobilization Director James F. Byrnes, David Niles, presidential assistant, working behind the scenes for the fourth term and other Roosevelt stooges, to show the truth of how this indictment came about, and how it was not brought in good faith. As mentioned the full story of this hearing was told in THE BROOM and the editor was farsighted enough to be able to piece together the facts of the situation. (To be continued)

Will Klein Return to D. C.?

Fayson Lakes, New Jersey.
My Dear de Aryan;-

Was in New York City last week for several days, saw Henry Klein on two occasions had a good long talk with him, he may return to the trial on Sept. 5th of his own free will, unless he changes his mind in the mean time.

Also was in contact with the District Attorney relative to Edwin P. Banta. I have demanded to go before the New York County Grand Jury and indict not only Banta but the officials of the Anti-Nazi League Inc., for conspiracy and grand larceny, for Banta has acted as an informer for this Gestapo outfit for years as well as many others that would pay him, but I now have the goods on him and the Anti-Nazi League, and over the signature of Banta himself, he does not even know I have this damaging evidence in his own handwriting, this will tear the whole sedition trial apart, as Banta had stolen a whole suitcase of private and confidential letters and papers from veterans headquarters 401 West 46th street around June 1943 while I was out of the City and sold them to the Anti-Nazi League, it was on these papers and letters I was reindicted in this case for the Anti-Nazi League turned them over to the Department of Justice. So I have the whole story at last, and I feel the District Attorney is going to act on it and at once, this will mean a complete expose of the Anti-Anti-Semitic racket. I know that the Anti-Nazi League has got wind that I am in contact with District Attorney Hogan (a fighting Irishman) and they are scared stiff.

Kind Personal Regards,
EDWARD JAMES SMYTHE.

CIO Sued for Refund of Dues 'Obtained By Fraud.'

CHICAGO,—Harry Morgan, 36, a turret lathe operator in a Chicago war factory who joined a C. I. O. union in November, 1942, filed a suit in Superior court to get his money back.

He charged that the organization is a Newdeal and Communistic machine which collected his dues and fees thru fraud by misrepresenting itself as a labor union. Morgan has been employed for eight years at the Chicago Flexible Shaft company, 5600 Roosevelt rd., and his union is local 1150 of the CIO United Electrical, Radio, and Machine Workers.

Calls Trial a Farce

Pat Amato, president of the local, and Irving Krane, business manager, removed him as chief shop steward in June, and a few days later, in what he described as a farcical trial, the executive board expelled him from union membership, Morgan charged, because he refused to circulate the union's New Deal and communistic propaganda.

Represented by Atty. William J. Grace, Morgan asked the court to declare the board's action null and void; to enjoin the union from attempting to cause him to lose his job because of the maintenance of membership contract; and to order the union to repay him his money.

Morgan submitted a copy of a letter he wrote resigning from the union and asking the return of his dues. His membership, he charged, was obtained by fraud and misrepresentation.

"I was informed that the CIO unit was a labor organization and was to represent me in negotiations with my employers as to hours of labor, wages, and conditions of employment—nothing else", he said.

"Propaganda Machine"

"I am now satisfied that it is a New Deal, partisan, political organization whose object is to regiment members into one particular machine for communism. I have my own political beliefs. They are my own business—not the union's business.

"I have not surrendered any political rights or granted to any CIO official the power to spend my dues or to represent me in political matters. If the CIO and the UE (United Electrical Workers) have the right to regiment me into a political party . . . . then they have the right to do either."

"My dues and union money are being used for political purposes," Morgan wrote. "They are bringing a 'higher standard of living' for political job holders. In my membership contract there is no provision for the union engaging in politics.

"I refuse to be used as a stooge by the Communist element in the UE and the CIO for promotion of Communist ideas and plans that would destroy the United States government under which workers enjoy a higher standard of living than workers anywhere else in the world."

Plugged Fourth Term

Certain officers of the union, Morgan's suit charged, conspired to circulate among the Chicago Flexible Shaft company employes "poltical propaganda for the New Deal, masquerading under the name of the Democratic party; also for the fourth term for Franklin Delano Roosevelt; and also propaganda in favor of communism and various communistic individuals, organizations, plans, and proposals."

Morgan stated that he is an independent American citizen who had not surrendered his political or civil rights, he was not in accord with the union's propaganda activies, and he felt no obligation to agree with the officers. He said he presented his objections at meetings of the steward's council and was supported by a majority vote of the council.

Amata, Krane, and other officers, however, he charged, suspended him as shop steward in violation of the union's laws.
